

The problem with BPL is a two-way street. BPL would not only cause interference to HF radio services, HF radio services would interfere with BPL. This interference would be mainly limited to residential areas, where the majority of Amateur Stations are.